The Crown Family

For 85 years, the Metropolitan Planning Council (MPC) has brought government, community and business leaders together to develop workable solutions to our region's toughest planning and development challenges. The Annual Luncheon is MPC's signature event, attracting some 1,000 business, civic, public and community leaders who attend to hear influential speakers and to honor a leader from Chicago's civic community.

MPC's 2019 Annual Luncheon Keynote Conversation features Raj Chetty, the William A. Ackman Professor of Economics at Harvard University and Director of Opportunity Insights, and David Williams, Policy Director at Opportunity Insights. They will dive into how Chicago compares with other U.S. cities and regions on economic mobility and describe solutions that can empower families to rise out of poverty and achieve the American Dream.

MPC will also recognize one of Chicago's leading corporate citizens, John W. Rowe, Chairman Emeritus, Exelon Corporation, with the 2019 Champion Fighter Award. This honor is bestowed to those who have made extraordinary civic contributions to the Chicago region, which is embodied by John's transformative leadership and philanthropy.
