

Emeritus Board of Governors

Metropolitan Planning Council (MPC) proudly acknowledges the unwavering commitment and invaluable contributions of its longstanding board members who have dedicated their time and service to the organization. In recognition of their exemplary dedication, insight, and leadership, MPC bestows upon these esteemed individuals the honorary title of Emeritus Board Member.

An Emeritus Board Member is a distinguished former board member who is invited to remain engaged with MPC in a nonvoting advisory capacity, symbolizing the enduring bond between the organization and its longstanding champions. This honorific title is a testament to the member's active participation, financial support, and enduring interest in advancing MPC's mission and goals.

Qualifications for Emeritus Board Member

- Former Board Member: Emeritus Board Members are drawn from the ranks of former board members who have demonstrated exceptional dedication to MPC's mission.
- Long-term Active and Distinctive Board Service: Emeritus Board Members are distinguished by their extensive and impactful service to MPC, and marked by their unique contributions and insights.
- Distinguished Leadership Legacy: Emeritus Board Members have held significant leadership positions within MPC, shaping the organization's direction and strategy through their vision and expertise.
- Philanthropic and Ambassadorial Support: Emeritus Board Members invested in MPC during their tenure and served as advocates, leveraging their influence, expertise, or networks to advance MPC's mission.

Benefits of Emeritus Board Membership

DISTINCTIVE CONNECTION TO MPC

Emeritus Board Members receive:

- Invitations to select events (Annual Event, high-profile policy discussions, or private receptions).
- Annual "State of MPC" briefing, an intimate update from the CEO or Board Chair.
- Early access to major MPC publications or research.
- Inclusion in thought partnership to weigh in on big-picture issues via surveys or calls.

MAGNIFIED RECOGNITION & STATUS

Acknowledgement of membership includes:

- Recognition listing on MPC's website and annual report as part of the Emeritus Board of Governors.
- Special acknowledgment at MPC's Annual Event with visual ribbon and access to the VIP reception.
- Exclusive title use of "Emeritus Board of Governors Member, MPC."